Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On April 7, 2020, Spirit of Texas Bancshares, Inc. (the “Company”) announced to its employees that Dean O. Bass, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Spirit of Texas Bank (the “Bank”), has contracted the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) and is taking a temporary medical leave of absence. In connection with Mr. Bass’ leave of absence, on April 6, 2020, the Company’s Board of Directors determined that David M. McGuire, the President of the Company and President and Chief Lending Officer of the Bank, will assume Mr. Bass’ authority and responsibilities as Interim Chief Executive Officer until he returns from his leave of absence. Additionally, Steven M. Morris, a director of the Company and the Bank, will serve as the acting Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company and the Bank until Mr. Bass returns from his leave of absence.

Mr. McGuire, age 56, has served as the President of the Company and the President and Chief Lending Officer of the Bank, since 2009. In addition to serving as Interim Chief Executive Officer of the Company and the Bank, Mr. McGuire will continue to serve as President of the Company and President and Chief Lending Officer of the Bank.

Mr. Morris, age 68, is a business and financial consultant and certified public accountant, beginning his career with Arthur Young & Company, an international accounting firm. Mr. Morris is the Founder and President of TransTexas Enterprises, Inc., a private investment firm located in Cypress, Texas. Mr. Morris is also the managing director of Barkers Point Properties, LLC, a real estate investment company. He has served on the boards of directors of the Company and the Bank since 2008. He is the former chairman of the Twelfth Man Foundation, a private 501(c)(3) corporation located in College Station, Texas. Additionally, Mr. Morris serves on the board of Crossroads Christian Counseling, Inc. and as a director of 127 Pure, a 501(c)(3) corporation located in Cumming, Georgia. In the past, he has served on various public and private boards, including audit committee chairman of Quicksilver Resources, Inc. and Bank of Tanglewood of Houston, Texas. Mr. Morris has been an elder in his church for the past 18 years and a Habitat for Humanity volunteer and participates in annual mission trips supporting an orphanage in India. He received his BBA in Accounting from Texas Tech University in 1974.

Title: Interim Chief Financial Officer and Chief
Accounting Officer

To: All Employees of Spirit of Texas Bank SSB

From: David M. McGuire

Date: April 7, 2020

To All Employees,

The Executive Team wants to make you aware that Mr. Dean O. Bass, our Chairman/CEO, has taken a temporary medical leave of absence due to exposure to the Covid-19 virus. Mr. David McGuire, our President/Chief Lending Officer, has assumed the responsibilities of interim CEO of the Holding Company and interim CEO of the Bank in Dean's absence. David is in daily communications with Dean and we do not anticipate any interruptions in any of our services. Dean additionally wanted to tell everyone that he is recovering and will be back in the office soon.
